

IDEA Deposit Agreement

I grant to Drexel University certain rights regarding the following work (hereinafter, "the Work"):

TITLE:

I wish to deposit the Work in iDEA, Drexel University Libraries' institutional repository.

I grant Drexel University a nonexclusive, royalty free, perpetual license to create and preserve digital surrogates of the Work, and to use the Work and such surrogates in any of the following ways, without limitation:

- a) To reproduce, view, display, perform, describe, catalog, validate, document, promote, and advertise the Work or its surrogates
- b) To incorporate the metadata or documentation of the Work or its surrogates into online discovery systems managed by the Drexel University Libraries and external to Drexel for increased exposure and access
- c) To store, translate, copy, migrate, or re-format the Work or its surrogates in any way to ensure its future preservation and accessibility.

I affirm that I am the owner or part owner of the Work's copyright, or a representative of such owner or part owner, and am authorized to grant Drexel University the rights required by this agreement. I also affirm that the Work does not, to the best of my knowledge, infringe or violate any rights of others. I further affirm that any third party-owned material is clearly identified and acknowledged within the Work.

I further affirm the following:

- a) If ownership of the Work's copyright is shared with one or more other parties, or if the Work contains material whose copyright is owned by one or more other parties, I affirm that the unrestricted permission of the other copyright owner(s) to grant Drexel University Libraries the rights required by this agreement has been obtained, and that such third-party owned or jointly owned material is clearly identified and acknowledged within the text or content of the submission. Copies of relevant permissions shall be made available to the Drexel University Libraries upon request.
- b) If the Work includes interviews, I affirm that I have obtained signed permissions from the interviewees to make their interviews public.
- c) If the Work is based upon work that has been sponsored or supported by an entity other than Drexel University, I affirm that any right or review or other obligations required by such contract or agreement have been fulfilled.

I release and hold harmless Drexel University and its trustees, officers, and employees from any and all liability which may result from claims of an alleged infringement of copyright, breach of confidentiality, or invasion of privacy arising out of access to and use of the Work.
